ANSWERS:

1. Devil May Care is the new Bond film.

b) false - this is the correct answer. It's a book, not a film.

2. Ian Fleming is the writer of Devil May Care.

b) false - this is the correct answer. It's a very recent book, and Ian Fleming died in 1964.

3. Sebastian Faulks writes mainly thrillers.

b) false - this is the correct answer. Faulks is not an author known for writing thrillers.

4. James Bond is a real spy character.

b) false - this is the right answer. James Bond is a fictional character.

5. Daniel Craig will star in Quantum of Solace.

a) true - good choice, this is correct.

6. Craig said he felt Casino Royale was " _____ " compared to Quantum of Solace.

a) a hole in the wall - this informal expression means a cash machine. Other words with the same meaning are cashpoint, ATM (in the US) and bancomat (in many European countries).

b) a walk in the park - this is the right answer, well done.

c) a safe pair of hands - this expression means someone who you can trust to do an important job well, without making mistakes.

d) a pain in the neck - this informal expression means someone or something that is very annoying.
