ANSWERS:

1. I really liked the book but the film was a bit _____. The ending was completely different.
 - a) There is no such word in English. Try again.
 - b) I was disappointed in the film. But you need a different adjective to describe the film. Try again.
 - c) This is the correct answer. Well done!
 - d) This is an adverb (it describes a verb). The correct answer is an adjective (which describes the noun, 'film').

2. I started to introduce her to everyone and then realised I couldn't remember her name. I was really _____.
 - a) Correct. This means I felt uncomfortable.
 - b) This is not the correct word. The '-ing' ending refers to a situation, not to how a person feels.
 - c) This is a verb. The correct answer is an adjective.
 - d) This means 'held someone tightly with both arms.' Try again.

3. The lecture was so _____ I fell asleep and only woke up when it had finished.
 - a) This word doesn't exist in English. It sounds like the correct answer but the correct one is spelt differently.
 - b) This is not the correct word. The 'ed' ending refers to how a person feels, not a situation (like, a lecture, for example).
 - c) This is the correct answer. Well done!
 - d) This word means 'a thin flat piece of wood', so is not the correct answer. Try again.

4. The journey was very long and _____. I was absolutely exhausted by the time we got home.
 - a) I was tired but you need an adjective with a different ending to describe the journey. Try again.
 - b) A tyre is a rubber wheel on a car or bicycle, so it's not the right word here.
 - c) This is a verb. The correct answer is an adjective.
 - d) Well done, this is the correct answer.

5. The party was _____! I never expected to have so much fun.

- a) and d) This is not the correct word. It's a verb. The correct answer is an adjective.
- b) This is the correct answer. It describes the party, not how I felt about it.
- c) This is not the correct word. The 'ed' ending refers to how a person feels, not a situation (like a party, for example).

6. I was always very _____ in medicine at school which is why I went on to become a doctor.

- a) This is the correct answer. Well done!
- b) This is a verb. The correct answer is an adjective.
- c) This is not the correct word. The '-ing' ending refers to a situation, not to how a person feels.
- d) This is an adverb (it describes a verb). The correct answer is an adjective (which describes how I feel about medicine).
