ANSWERS

1. The first thing to do when arranging a holiday is to decide on the _____.

a) location – this is not the best word here.

b) destination – this is the correct answer. It's the most natural word in this context.

c) place – this is not the best word here.

d) situation – this is not correct here.

2. Don't forget to _____ a taxi to take you to the airport.

a) book – this is the correct answer.

b) buy – this is not right. You don't 'buy' a taxi for a single journey.

c) rent – this is not right. We don't use the verb 'rent' with a taxi.

d) reserve – this is not the best word here.

3. Before you leave home make sure you have all your travel _____.

a) paper – this is not right. In the plural form it would be possible, but not singular.

b) permissions – this is not correct. 'Travel permissions' is not a natural phrase.

c) passports – this is not correct. The adjective 'travel' does not go with 'passports'.

d) documents – this is the correct answer.

4. I always _____ travel insurance for peace of mind.

d) take out – this is the correct answer.

5. One thing they say about travelling is that it _____ the mind.

d) broadens – this is the correct answer. It's a fixed saying.

6. If you've travelled around many time zones you might suffer from _____.

c) jet-lag – this is the correct answer. This is the word for the tiredness you feel at strange times of the day after you have travelled across many time-zones.
