ANSWERS:

1. 1. It always _____ him when someone reminds him of the time he failed his driving test.

a) angries - this is not right. 'Angry' is an adjective, not a verb.

c) set-ups - this is not right. You need to change the order of the two parts of this word to form the verb meaning 'makes someone worried, unhappy or angry'.

d) upsets - this is the right answer.

2. Her husband was _____ when she told him she was pregnant.

c) radiant - this is the correct word. It means 'obviously very happy'. Well done!

3. She was really _____ with me when I accidentally broke her favourite vase.

4. Cath smiles a lot these days. She seems so much _____ since she met Adrian!

a) happier - well done! This is the right word in the right form.

5. Decide which of the adverbs below CANNOT be used in this sentence: He was _____ devastated when his wife died.

a) mostly - correct. You need a stronger adverb to go with 'devastated'.

6. Samantha was _____ when she got the promotion. She'd been waiting for this moment for years!
