ANSWERS:

1. He's two years younger than his sister but he can run _____ she can.

a) You can say he runs too fast but you can't use too in a comparison with as ... as.

b) and d) There is one word missing here.

c) We can use as ... as to say that two things or people are equal in some way.

2. If you say, 'He's as clever as his sister,' what do you mean?

a), b) and c) This means she is more clever than him. The correct answer means that they are equally clever.

d) We use as ... as to say that two things or people are equal in some way.

3. John _____ Nick.

a) This means that John is less handsome than Nick. Well done!

b) and c) If you want to say that John is less handsome than Nick, the correct pattern is isn't as ... as. Try again.

d) Only one of these options is correct. Try again.

4. The food was delicious but she didn't eat _____ I did.

a) and d) To compare a countable noun (like cakes), you can use the pattern as many ... as. Try again.

b) You can say these cakes are as tasty as those ones, for example. But here, the correct way pattern is as many ... as.

c) To compare a countable noun (like cakes), you can use the pattern as many ... as.

5. Now I want all you children to _____ today. No shouting, no pushing and no running!

a) This is the correct expression to tell the children you want them to behave very well.

b) It's true you might want the children to be polite but this is not the correct fixed expression if you want to ask them to behave well. Try again.

c) and d) The first four words of this answer are correct but the whole answer isn't correct. Try again.

6. She doesn't need to go on a diet. _____.

a) The fixed expression with house is she's as big as a house. This means she's fat. The correct answer is a fixed expression which means she's very slim. Try again.

b) This is the correct fixed expression to say that she is very slim. Well done!

c) This means she eats a lot. The correct answer is a fixed expression which means she's very slim. Try again.

d) This means she's fat. The correct answer is a fixed expression which means she's very slim. Try again.
