

Quiznet

Topic: Vocabulary - Appearance

BBC WORLD SERVICE LEARNING ENGLISH

bbclearningenglish.com
© British Broadcasting Corporation 2005

BBC Learning English – Quiznet

Try the quiz online:

http://www.bbc.co.uk/apps/1fl/worldservice/quiznet/quizengine?ContentType=text/html:quiz=114_appearance

Quiz topic:

For each of the six questions choose the one correct answer.

1. They look ridiculous together – he's really short and she's so _____.
a) high
b) tall
c) great
d) large
2. When I saw her on her wedding day she looked absolutely _____.
a) pretty
b) beautiful
c) handsome
d) ugly
3. If you could change one thing about your appearance, what _____?
a) would you have changed
b) would you change
c) will you change
d) do you change
4. You shouldn't judge a book by its _____.
a) cover
b) plot
c) main characters
d) first page
5. Have you seen Celia's new boyfriend, he's tall, dark and _____.
a) handsome
b) gorgeous
c) good-looking
d) beautiful
6. A: _____ B: He's tall and blonde with blue eyes.
a) What does he like?
b) How does he look?
c) What does he look like?
d) How is he?

BBC Learning English – Quiznet

Quiz topic:

Answers:

1. They look ridiculous together – he's really short and she's so _____.
 - a) high - Use 'high' to describe buildings not people.
 - b) tall - Tall is the opposite of short. Correct
 - c) great - Great usually means 'really good'.
 - d) large - To say someone is 'large' is a polite way of saying they are fat.

2. When I saw her on her wedding day she looked absolutely _____.
 - a) pretty - If you say 'absolutely' it must be followed by an extreme (strong) adjective.
 - b) beautiful - If you say 'absolutely' it must be followed by an extreme (strong) adjective. Correct
 - c) handsome - Use 'handsome' to describe men.
 - d) ugly - If you say 'absolutely' it must be followed by an extreme (strong) adjective.

3. If you could change one thing about your appearance, what _____?
 - a) would you have changed - Use 'would you have changed' to talk about unreal situations in the past.
 - b) would you change - Use 'would change' to talk about unreal situations in the present or future. Correct
 - c) will you change - Use 'will change' to talk about a situation which you think is possible in the future.
 - d) do you change - Use 'do change' to talk about things which happen regularly.

4. You shouldn't judge a book by its _____.
 - a) cover - This expression means you shouldn't judge someone's character by their appearance. Correct
 - b) plot - You shouldn't judge someone's character by their appearance – which word suggests 'appearance'?
 - c) main characters - You shouldn't judge someone's character by their appearance appearance – which word suggests 'appearance'?
 - d) first page - You shouldn't judge someone's character by their appearance appearance – which word suggests 'appearance'?

5. Have you seen Celia's new boyfriend, he's tall, dark and _____.
 - a) handsome - 'Tall dark and handsome' is a fixed expression (it cannot be changed). Correct
 - b) gorgeous - Which word completes the fixed expression 'tall dark and _____'?
 - c) good-looking - Which word completes the fixed expression 'tall dark and _____'?
 - d) beautiful - Which word completes the fixed expression 'tall dark and _____'?

6. A: _____ B: He's tall and blonde with blue eyes.
 - a) What does he like? - Use this question to ask about someone's likes and dislikes.
 - b) How does he look? - This question is not correct.
 - c) What does he look like? - Use this question to ask about someone's appearance. Correct
 - d) How is he? - Use this question to ask about someone's health.