ANSWERS:

1. Before you turn at a junction don't forget to _____ .
c) indicate – this is the correct verb. It means to turn on your flashing lights which show which direction you are turning.

2. I don't like changing gears so I prefer driving _____ to _____ .
b) an automatic / a manual – this is correct.

3. When driving it's important to check your _____ regularly.
c) mirrors – this is the correct word.

4. On my way here a dog ran into the road and I had to _____ to avoid an accident.
a) swerve – this is correct. It means to change direction suddenly.
b) jump – this is not right. Not many cars can jump!
c) crash – this is not right. To crash is to have an accident and this didn't happen.
d) skid – this is not the best word here. To skid is an uncontrolled action. There is a better answer.

5. Modern cars are very reliable but it's still usually necessary to have them _____ once a year.
a) cleaned – this is not right. It's not necessary to clean a car.
b) punctured – this is not right. You can puncture a tyre if you drive over something sharp, but it's certainly not something you want to happen to your car.
c) replaced – this is not right. It means to change. It's not necessary to change a car every year.
d) serviced – this is correct. It means to have a mechanical check of your car.

6. On Saturdays when everyone is out shopping it can be very difficult to find a parking _____ .
c) space – this is the correct word .
